More Widespread Than Last

The plot is much more widespread.

The Amy Day bombs that arrived at the destination were mailed prior to May I. One received by ex-Senator Hardwick and a mail of the miners' union antonuous dyesterday.

Other unions still are awaiting orders from the federation in line with its declaration of solidarity of all branches of labor with railroad men's general strike, which was called to force untionalization of public utilities and the acceptance of other demands.

The minister of public works announced that measures would be taken to assure the operation of the railroads and other public services.

The attorney general made no direct necessation that the "bombers" were members of the Communist party of America or the Communist Labor party oth of which are advocating the genstrike for May 1, but he indicated investigation of the department into the May Day plans had shown these two organizations to be the most active in ropesing demonstrations on the part hiladelphia Mayor, in Scranton. Urges Recognition of State

Scranten, April 30.—Speaking at a banquet given in his honor last night at the Hotel Jermyn by William Lynch, formerly state senator. Mayor J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia, declared he believes it is about time for the Republican party to select its presidential candidate from Pennsylvania.

Mr. Moore said that just because Pennsylvania is safely Republican is no real reason why the state should be ignored, and that he believes a strong effort should be made to have Governor Sproul nominated.
